SECTION 1: WELCOME TO YOUR COURSE / KEY CONTACTS

1.1 Introduction to your Course

The MBA at London Metropolitan University is designed for candidates from diverse backgrounds with experience of working in a managing role and provides the opportunity to build on that experience, linking theory with practice and develop as thoughtful and influential managers and leaders. It gives people from diverse disciplines and backgrounds the opportunity to develop their potential as managers and leaders, to study postgraduate management collaboratively and to specialise in innovation and leadership management and development.

The programme is conducted at Stanford Academy, Singapore by a diverse team of staff on expertise, wider academic and professional community. The preparation of influential leaders and managers involves developing the self-awareness and the innovative capabilities necessary for creating successful and sustainable groups and organisations. The MBA provides students with the opportunity to study innovation management and collaboratively develop their own effectiveness as managers and leaders whilst following an MBA programme of study which includes the essential business functions of accounting and finance, leadership and strategic management, people management and marketing, and culminates in an individually designed business research project.

The MBA programme is underpinned by the understandings of responsible management, ethical and respectful behaviour and evidence-informed practice. Embedded within the programme are the principles of self and lifelong development, ethics, responsibility, inclusion, diversity and sustainability and the curriculum will be structured to involve the development of creativity, citizenship and awareness of service. This is an active response to the call for programmes to be adaptable and to prepare students for the future as flexible individuals, capable of coping with changing lives and employment opportunities.

The core of the MBA programme consists of a set of 4 integrated 20 credit modules which students will study in collaboration with MBA pathway students. This will enable students from diverse disciplines to gain knowledge and understanding of key business functions and to develop their potential as business and management practitioners. In addition to these four modules, students will study 2 additional 20 credit modules, (Innovation management and Developing effectiveness in management and leadership).

All students will also study a 20 credit module (Management Learning and Research) which is designed to familiarise them with business research methods and to prepare them to undertake the final part of the course, a Business Research Project.

Students' learning is initiated and directed through formal contact time with the teaching team in lectures and seminars. There is an emphasis on active learning, as the MBA students develop learning through group activities organised in class and outside formal teaching time. As mature individuals developing a career path in management, they are expected to develop their competencies through required reading, writing, problem solving and other tasks outside of the class in order to prepare for face to face sessions, a 'flipped classroom' approach.

Students will develop their understanding and show their ability to apply knowledge and analyses to various business contexts through a range of opportunities, including the use of their own work experience, case studies, business scenarios, presentations and problem-based learning exercises. A positive, critical and responsible approach is encouraged throughout the course, enabling deep understanding and the adoption of creative and innovative responses, so reflecting the nature of the business and management environment.

The lectures and seminars which constitute the formal face-to-face elements of the course are essential activities that will support the development of knowledge and understanding. These sessions will provide students with tools of analysis, outline methods for evaluation and give clear guidance on how students may best extend and apply their learning independently. The face to face sessions are action oriented and student-centred to encourage 'deep' as opposed to 'surface' learning, and give students the opportunity to apply their understanding to various business scenarios, and to test out their ideas.

Module teaching on the MBA is structured to be developmental, so that students will first develop basic knowledge of a topic, and then apply this knowledge to a variety of problems and scenarios presented in seminars and outside formal classes. Embedded within the subject teaching will be opportunities for personal professional development appropriate to business and management practitioners, for example; to develop expertise in giving presentations.

It is expected that students will prepare in advance for both lectures and seminars using digital platforms where appropriate (a 'flipped classroom' model) either independently or as a group, in order that maximum active use may be made of face-to-face and peer-to-peer opportunities for learning. In addition, the reflective practitioner model will encourage students to maintain an active and reflective stance to their learning and how it connects to the world of work. The course makes use of the Open University Digital and Information Literacies Framework to encourage the development of digital literacy throughout the course.

The development of the personal awareness and practical skills associated with management and leadership will be encouraged in a supportive manner throughout the programme. Group work, presentations, writing for diverse audiences and undertaking research will all contribute to the students' practical skills. It is anticipated that personal awareness of areas for development will develop progressively through the course, and students will be strongly encouraged in a supportive manner to develop these areas.

All modules will include the use of the school's virtual learning environment (Canvas). Core materials, eg handbooks, presentations, reading materials etc will be made available on Canvas and the platform will also provide the vehicle for online collaboration and other blended learning activities.

Students will be encouraged to get to know the members of their cohort, and actively participate in events which contribute to the course and to student learning and development, but which lie outside formal contact hours.

Section 7 sets down the key features of your course, including your Course Specification. Your Course Specification may have a work placement as a compulsory element or you may be able to choose it as an optional module. The placements aim to enhance your work based skills and to enable you to bring these reflections productively to bear on your studies.

SECTION 2: POSTGRADUATE DEGREE COURSES

Undertaking study at postgraduate level is likely to involve new and different methods of working compared to your previous experience. You will study more specialised subject matter at a more advanced level, relatively quickly and over a shorter period. You will be expected to pursue your studies with a greater degree of independence than at undergraduate level and to set your own learning objectives within the framework of the course.

2.1 Key Features of Postgraduate Degree Courses

The Course Specification (see Section 7.1) details your course curriculum and structure and you should study this carefully. Many features are defined by the Postgraduate Regulatory Framework, part of the University's Academic Regulations. The following overview provides a summary of the most common features of postgraduate courses:

- Full-time students starting Masters programmes in the Autumn semester are taught over three semesters in a year, requiring approximately 40 hours of study per week. Part-time students undertake the equivalent overall workload over a longer period of study, between one- two years.
- The standard Masters award requires 180 credits at level M: normally 120 credits for the taught elements and 60 credits for the Dissertation or Project. Any variation to this will be detailed in the Course Specification.
- Most postgraduate modules are equivalent to 20 credits. Typically, a full-time student studies modules equivalent to 40-60 credits per semester (normally 2-3 modules).
- The taught elements of postgraduate courses are mainly compulsory “core” modules and normally include one concerned with research methodology and project development and practice, in preparation for the dissertation or project.
- All taught modules and the dissertation or project module are marked on a percentage scale, with a pass/fail threshold of 50%.
- Based on the final aggregate of average percentage results, Masters awards are graded as: Masters (50-59.99%), Masters with Merit (60–69.99%), or Masters with Distinction (70% plus)
- While most students will aim to achieve the full Masters qualification, all Masters courses offer the subsidiary awards of Postgraduate Certificate or Postgraduate Diploma (both available with Merit or with Distinction) for students unable to complete their full programme of study. The full list of awards and their requirements is as follows:

Award	Credits at level M	Modules Required
Masters	180 credits (Level 7)	7 modules + dissertation (40 credits)
Postgraduate Diploma	120 credits (Level 7)	6 modules
Postgraduate Certificate	60 credits (Level 7)	3 modules

2.2 Dissertation or Project

You register for your Masters Dissertation or Project in the same way as for your other modules. Once you are registered for your dissertation/project, you are expected to submit it in the period for which you are registered. The School's standard assessment arrangements and mitigating circumstances procedures apply.

Formal requirements for your dissertation are set out in detail in the Dissertation/Project Module Booklet for your course. Please note that some postgraduate courses will require you to have passed research methods before you can begin your Dissertation/Project.

You should also consult the University's Code of Good Research Practice to see whether these guidelines raise any issues for your own research, and discuss them with your supervisor.

The deadline for submission will be announced in the Spring semester- 25 June 2021.

Dissertations/Projects must be submitted via Canvas. Your supervisor will be able to confirm the correct mode of submission.

3.8 Your timetable

The class timing is from 9.00am to 6pm, Monday to Friday. Each module may have different class schedule. Please get the timetable from the Student Service Center before the semester commences. For part-time students, your class time is either weekdays evening or weekends.

3.9 Your studies with London Met

As a postgraduate student, you will be seeking to develop your learning at a more advanced level and your course will provide many opportunities to acquire new knowledge and skills. To make the most of the opportunities available you need to organise and plan your learning to help you manage your time effectively – see the guidance provided on the Study Hub collection of online guides on academic and study skills.

Assessment is an important feature of study at postgraduate level. Each Module Booklet sets out detailed assessment requirements and learning outcomes, providing a focus for your studies. There are various forms of assessment and modules often involve a combination of examination and coursework or presentation. It is important that you understand clearly the expectations and deadlines for each item of assessment.

You should be aware that all the various coursework assessments and examinations have to be completed for the achievement of your final award. In addition to attending the timetabled sessions, you will need to study in your own time. You should expect to spend 12-14 hours per week on each module, making a 40 hour per week commitment for a full-time student. Part-time students need to plan a similar time commitment for each module, but will generally be taking fewer modules at any one time.

Independent study is particularly important when planning work for your dissertation or project. This is a substantial piece of work, to be developed and completed over a relatively lengthy period, with much of the writing concentrated in the final stages. Working closely with your assigned supervisor, you will need to plan your work carefully, with initial discussion to define the topic, preparatory research and reading, planning the structure of the research and final report, writing and re-writing particular sections and drafts.

Please be respectful of the learning environment and remember to switch off your mobile phone before entering all classes and study areas.

In summary: plan your learning strategy; allocate enough time; attend all of your module lectures, tutorials and other sessions; start assignments well in advance; seek advice and help when you need it; use the learning resources offered; and, enjoy the learning experience!

3.10 Feedback on your assessments

Assessment feedback is a critical part of your learning experience and supports successful achievement on your course. Feedback can be:

- formative – it provides you with feedback on progress of your work. The work may or may not contribute to the overall module grade.
- summative – it provides comments in respect of your performance in relation to intended learning outcomes and requirements for a piece of assessment.

During your course you will probably receive feedback in a number of ways:

- in teaching sessions to the whole class or to you individually;
- orally or in writing; • written using a feedback sheet on your work;
- via Learning Management System (Canvas), the online space for modules – written and/or audio feedback;
- during the module as well as at the end.

You are entitled to receive feedback on all assessments, normally within 15 working days of submission. For assignments submitted during the module – especially where feedback can be delivered within timetabled class sessions - the module team will help you to understand how to improve future submissions. For end-of-module assignments feedback may be given on-line but you can request a meeting with your module tutors to help you understand why they have awarded the grades you received.

All arrangements for coursework and feedback return will normally be stated in Module Booklets. This should include:

- due dates for coursework submission;
- dates when coursework feedback will be distributed in class;
- dates when coursework feedback can be collected from the module lecturer;
- the format by which assessment feedback will be given;
- the process by which end-of-module coursework can be collected following the publication of the result concern.

You are strongly advised to familiarise yourself with the General Student Regulations on Student Conduct, which list a range of categories of academic misconduct and associated penalties, covering instances of academic misconduct (plagiarism, collusion, exam cheating). From the outset of your studies you should receive information and guidance on referencing conventions and group work activities to ensure that you do not contravene the University's Regulations. If you are unsure about referencing, paraphrasing or group work activities (and what may constitute collusion in such activities), you should seek advice as soon as possible from the Module Leader.

Further information can be accessed academic misconduct.

6.3 Academic Regulations

We provide guidance on most aspects of the academic regulations via Student Zone. If you are unsure please contact your Student Service Staff or Module leader.

6.4 Academic Board Appeals

The deadline for submitting an appeal is 10 working days from the date of publication of the results concerned or the notification of the termination of your student registration. Your completed form and supporting evidence must be submitted in person to the Student Service Counter by the specified deadline or by post or email to the Student Service Department, to arrive by the specified deadline. 6.5 Course Transfers

Terms and Condition for Course Transfer

A Student who has decided to transfer from the existing Course to another course within SA shall be deemed to have withdrawn from the current Course as otherwise agreed between SA and the student.

A student who wishes to transfer from one course to another within London Met must complete the Transfer Form, which is obtainable from the Administrative staff.

An administrative fee (Local/ Non-STP student: $50.00 and STP student: $100.00) (Subject to change) is payable per request for transfer.

Internal Processing of Course Transfer Request

The request will be considered by the management. The application will only be considered if the student meets all the pre-requisites of the new course. The decision of the University is final.

Approval for course transfer will be granted on a case-by-case basis subject to the student meeting the admissions requirements of the new course. Once the request for transfer is approved, the existing Student Contract shall be terminated, and the Fee Protection Insurance of the existing course will be terminated with the insurance provider.

For the international student, the School will have to submit a new application for a Student's Pass, on the understanding that the new application is subject to ICA approval.

If the student's application is approved by the management, he/she will be deemed to have withdrawn due to other reasons from the previous course. Balance of student's money can be transferred to new course.

For international students transferring to another course within SA, the Student's Pass application for the new course will be submitted to the Immigration and Checkpoints Authority (ICA) for approval. A processing fee is payable to ICA for the transfer of Student's Pass to the new programme. The transfer will only take effect after ICA approves the transfer of the Student Pass. The School will not be held liable for the transfer.

Formalities for Transfer

Once the request for transfer is approved by ICA, new Student Contract is needed to be signed. Subject to SA's Refund Policy, any remaining fees from the existing course will be transferred to the new course and the student will have to top up the difference in fees (if any) and a new Fee Protection Scheme (FPS) will be purchased for the new course.

Timeframe for processing transfer request: within 7 working days

The School will acknowledge receipt of transfer application within 3 working days and notify student of the decision within 7 working days from the date of receipt of the signed and duly completed Course Transfer Form.

If you intend to change course you should seek advice from the student service centre. Do not stop attending your course until a transfer has been agreed and confirmed in writing to you.

6.6 Coursework Submission

When handing in coursework you must ensure that you have understood and followed all the instructions provided by the Module Lecturer. For each coursework assessment, the type of submission will be specified as either:

- a 'Hardcopy Submission' which you submit in person to your Module leader; or,
- an 'Online Submission' via Canvas

It is important that you retain your confirmation email or electronic receipt in case of any future queries. Students are advised to set up a coursework receipt folder in their email. It is also essential that you keep a copy of the coursework until the results are published on Evision.

6.7 Criminal Convictions

If you are a student with an unspent criminal conviction, or you are charged, convicted or cautioned for an offence during your studies, you must notify the University. If you have a spent conviction or caution that is not eligible for filtering but are studying on a course which is exempt from the 1974 Rehabilitation of Offenders Act and/or requires a DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) check you must also inform the University immediately.

If you are a student with an unspent criminal conviction relating to a relevant offence, or you are charged, convicted or cautioned for a relevant offence during your studies, you must notify the University. Relevant offences are offences involving any kind of violence (including threats); sexual offences; harassment or stalking; supply of controlled substances; offences involving firearms, explosives, knives or other weapons, or arson; or terrorism offences.

If you are studying on a relevant course or undertaking regulated activity as part of your course, you must immediately notify your Course Leader if you

- have any unspent criminal convictions or any spent criminal convictions that are not eligible for filtering
- are charged, convicted or cautioned for any criminal offence; or
- are subject to a formal child protection investigation (or any member of your household is),
- are barred from working with children or vulnerable groups or in a regulated activity or are the subject of a referral to the DBS

Relevant courses include (but are not limited to) Dietetics, Counselling Psychology, Social Work, Initial Teacher Training (e.g. PGCE), Primary Education, Early Childhood Studies, Montessori Early Childhood Practice and Early Years Education. Regulated activity includes (but is not limited to) activities which involve working closely with children or people in vulnerable circumstances, such as caring for, training, supervising or being solely in charge of them.

Full details of the University's regulations regarding criminal convictions are available at www.londonmet.ac.uk/convictions

6.8 Criteria for Awards

The Postgraduate Awards Framework, the list of all of the University's postgraduate awards, can be found at the beginning of Section 4.1 of the Academic Regulations. Section 4.2 of the Academic Regulations details the minimum criteria for each of postgraduate award.

6.9 Disabilities and Dyslexia

Our Disabilities and Dyslexia Service \(DDS\) can assist you if you have a disability, long-term medical or mental health condition or a Specific Learning Difficulty (e.g. dyslexia or dyspraxia). You will need to provide medical evidence of your condition, or a full post 16 diagnostic assessment for Specific Learning Difficulties (SpLDs). If you are eligible for support, our Advisers can help you obtain a range of adjustments depending on the level of need identified. Support can include:

- notes/hand-outs in advance
- permission to record lectures
- individual examination arrangements (e.g. extra time, use of a computer, sheltered accommodation, amanuensis), alternative assessment arrangements
- extended library loans
- accessibility related classroom adjustments
- screening for a Specific Learning Difficulties (dyslexia)
- Individual Needs Assessment Report, to identify any adjustments to support you in

- your studies
- advice and guidance in applying for study-related funding e.g. the Disabled Students' Allowance(DSA)
- assistance with arranging specialist tutoring, mentoring, communication support

Please Note:

1. There are some aspects of course assessment that cannot be changed. These are known as 'competence standards'. A 'competence standard' is defined in the Equality Act 2010 as an academic, medical, or other standard applied for the purpose of determining whether or not a person has a particular level of competence or ability. These standards must be essential to the course and all students must be able to fulfil these criteria. Although in such situations it may not be possible to alter the format of the assessment, you may still be entitled to adjustments (e.g. extra time or an amanuensis). Competency standards are different to the fitness to practice standards that exist in certain professions, such as teaching, social work and medicine.

You are responsible for obtaining medical evidence of your disability/ long-term medical or mental health condition. Adjustments and extra support can be arranged only after a full diagnostic assessment and/or medical evidence is received. While the Service can provide screenings for a Specific Learning Difficulty, adjustments and extra support can be arranged only after a full diagnostic assessment is made. You may also be entitled to government allowances (e.g. DSA). You are strongly advised to contact the DDS for help with funding applications.

2. If you have a disability, long-term medical or mental health condition or a Specific Learning Difficulty, please contact DDS as soon as possible as we are not usually able to arrange adjustments to teaching and assessments at short notice. DDS require medical evidence of your condition/a full diagnostic assessment at least 4 weeks before the start of the relevant exam period. This is to ensure our Advisers have sufficient time to assess your requirements and communicate them to our Assessment and Conferment Office, who then implement any individual exam arrangements to which you are entitled.
3. It is your responsibility to update us if your condition changes. We need to know this in order to assess if there is any additional support you need – so please do stay in touch with us throughout your course.

6.10 Student Pass Renewal (international student only)

SA undertakes to use their best efforts to assist the Student if he/she requires a Student's Pass from the ICA. This includes, without limitation, providing the Student with advice on obtaining such pass, verifying the Student's enrolment and immigration status, and doing all such things as may be necessary to procure the Student's Pass on behalf of the Student.

The School does not guarantee the approval for the renewal of Student Pass application. Such applications are subject to approval by ICA. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that his/ her Student Pass is renewed in time. The School will not be held responsible if the Student Pass expires or is being rejected by ICA due to lateness in renewing. Not later than three weeks before the expiry of current Student Pass, students need to approach the administration staff to apply for renewal. Students are required to complete all necessary forms from the School and ICA and submit them to the administration staff. The School applies to ICA for submission of renewal of Student Pass.

N.B. The School will only process and submit application for renewal of Student Passes for students only if they meet the 90% attendance as required by ICA and are current in their payment of fees (if attendance is lower than 90%, management will consider on a case by case basis such as their performance, academic results and conduct etc.). When renewal is approved, the student is required to go through the formalities (i.e. the same as new Student Pass application after getting IPA status) and pay charges to ICA.

6.11 Student Pass not Transferable

The Student's Pass issued is not transferable and will expire upon the student ceasing to be a student of SA. The School is under an obligation to inform the ICA of the student's withdrawal from, or completion of his/her course of study at SA. The student needs to deliver the Student Pass to the School, within 7 days of the student ceasing to be a student of SA, for cancellation of the Student Pass.

6.12 Assessment Timetable

Assessment periods are detailed in the Undergraduate Academic Year found at the beginning of this Course Handbook. Respective module leader will inform the students on the assessment due dates during the lesson in Week 1.

6.13 Fitness to Study

The University recognises that medical, psychological, behavioural or emotional problems or a student's circumstances may affect a student's fitness to study and we are committed to maintaining and preserving the physical and psychological wellbeing of all students. Where concerns about a student's fitness to study have been raised, these will be dealt with, in a supportive and understanding manner, in accordance with the fitness to study procedure.

6.14 Marking and grades

The University provides you with marks and grades for the work that you submit for assessment. The detailed requirements of assessment in each module are specified in Module Booklets, together with indicative assessment criteria associated with different levels of performance and results. Each component of assessed work is assigned a percentage mark with a pass/fail threshold at 50%. At postgraduate level degrees are awarded according to the overall average mark obtained for all modules and the dissertation, with classification thresholds for each grade of award as follows:

- 70% and above Masters degree with Distinction
- 60% - 69.99% Masters degree with Merit
- 50% - 59.99% Masters degree
- 0% - 49.99% Fail

At the end of each semester, module results and awards are confirmed by Assessment Boards (Subject Standards Boards and Awards Boards). Assessment Boards uphold the academic standards of your course and ensure that each student is treated fairly and equally through the assessment process.

6.15 Mitigating Circumstances

The mitigating circumstances process is for students who have exceptional, unforeseen circumstances which prevent them from attending an examination or which prevented them submitting coursework. If you need to make a claim, independent supporting evidence is required and, if accepted, this will allow you an opportunity to redo the exam/resubmit the coursework without penalty i.e without capping of the mark. The deadline for the submission of claims is two weeks from the date of the assessment concerned (i.e. the examination date or submission deadline).

Claims for mitigating circumstances must be submitted, together with the evidence, to the Student Service Center.

6.16 Mode of Study

Your mode of study is determined during your application. Full-time or part-time students will enroll the same modules. Part-time students may request to take 1 module per semester, subject to the Management approval. Full-time students will attend weekday's classes whilst part-time students will attend evening/ weekends classes.

6.17 Progression

At the end of each year the University considers the performance of each student and decides whether they have passed sufficient modules to be able to move to the next level of their course. Failure in modules, particularly failure due to non-submission of coursework or non-attendance at an exam, is likely to have serious consequences for progression through your course. In some cases, students who cannot progress will have the opportunity to repeat modules that they have failed. A student who has received failing marks in three modules (60 credits) shall be required to undertake a review of their academic performance with the course leader or nominee. On the basis of this review the student may be counselled/ required to leave the course and/or to seek readmission on a different course.

Any failure to progress is likely to delay your graduation and will lead to you incurring extra debt. For this reason, students who think they may be unable to attempt assessment should seek advice from Student Service Centre as soon as possible. Students may contact the management team at Section 1.2 for advice on possible implication for their student pass.

6.18 Publication of Results and Transcripts and Awards Certificates

Your marks will be formally confirmed at the end of the academic year, once they have been confirmed by the Subject Standard Board for your subject. Marks are published via Evision.

An official transcript will be posted to Stanfort Academy on the completion of your course, together with your award certificate. There is no charge for either your end of course transcript or your original award certificate, but if your certificate is lost you will need to pay a fee for a replacement.

For reason of employment, or to provide proof of study at the University during your course, you may need a formal transcript. There is a fee for these transcripts, payable at the time of request. Requests should be made via the University's Eshop, who aim to produce transcripts within 10 working days of request. You can also print a copy of your results from Evision and your Student Hub will stamp it to confirm it is valid.

6.19 Reassessment

If you fail or do not attempt a component of assessment you will be provided with one reassessment opportunity during the reassessment period, provided you have failed the module overall. If you pass after reassessment the component concerned will be capped at 40%.

6.20 Retaking a Module

If, after reassessment, you still have not passed a module, you may need to re-register and to take the whole module again. You are only permitted to re-register any module on one occasion and depend on the programme schedule. A fee is charged for re-registrations.

However, you should note that there are limits on the number of modules you can register to gain your degree. If you repeat too many modules it will affect your funding, your ability to continue on your course and, if you are an international student, your right to remain in the Singapore.

6.21 Course Deferment Policy (applicable only to local and non-STP students)

We understand that, unfortunately, some students encounter exceptional circumstances resulting in them needing to take a break from their studies or delay it for a certain period. The University has procedures in place to support students who need to take a break from their studies or, in exceptional cases, modify their current programme of studies. Deferment may arise due to factors such as the compassionate ground or for any other valid reason.

Please think carefully about whether taking a break from your studies is right for you and please do contact your Student Service Centre for help and guidance, as during an approved break you will not be eligible to sit examinations, submit coursework or undertake any other form of assessment.

Timeframe for processing for Deferment request: 7 working days. The decision of the management and the University are final.

The maximum break permitted is one year and the maximum period in which to qualify for an Honours degree (including any agreed breaks) is six years.

Terms and Conditions for Deferment

A student who wishes to defer his/her study to a later date/ intake must complete the Deferment Form and submit it to the management. The form is obtainable from the Administrative staff. The approval of the deferment request is subject to the availability of the next intake.

The following conditions apply to any request for deferment of course:

- The student must state his/ her reason for wishing to defer his/ her studies, as well as the period of deferment. All requests for deferment must be supported by official documentary evidence.
- A student is only allowed to defer once per course of study. The period of deferment cannot be subsequently extended. The period of deferral cannot exceed 12 months. If student deferment period exceeds the time limited, student will be deemed to have withdrawn from the course and would have to re-apply as a new applicant if s/he wishes to register on the course again.
- Student must contact the School to resume the course and failure to accept the course offered by the School will result in the automatic withdrawal from the course and only withdrawal policies applies.
- Any course fee that had been paid by the student will be retained by the School, towards the payment of course fees when the student re-joins the course. If the student does not re-join the course within the stipulated period for any reason, there will be no refund for any course fee paid. The student will be required to pay any difference in the School fees, if there is a revision in School fees during his period of deferment.
- When the student resumes his/ her course of study, he/ she may be required to purchase a new set of materials, if the course materials have changed.
- Student needs to pay new FPS fees as the old course FPS is terminated upon request of the deferment.
- The School does not guarantee that the same course will be available when the period of deferment is completed. In the event of the course being unavailable, the student may request a transfer to another course, subject to the approval of the management.

If there is no suitable course, the student will be considered to have withdrawn without cause from the course and be subject to the procedures resulting from a withdrawal without cause.

- For the request of deferment, an administrative charge applies. The approval for deferment is at the sole discretion of Stanford Academy.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS UNDER STUDENT PASS IS NOT ALLOWED FOR COURSE DEFERMENT.

6.22 Standard Student Contract

To comply with the requirements of the Committee of Private Education (CPE), all local & international students enrolling in private education institution (PEI) in Singapore are required to sign a Standard Student Contract (Version 3.1) which stipulates:

Section 1)	Course information & fees,
Section 2)	Refund Policy,
Section 3)	Additional Information,
Schedule A)	Course Details
Schedule B)	Course fees
Schedule C)	Miscellaneous fees
Schedule D)	Refund Table

The CPE requires all private schools and their students to sign a student contract for any course that is longer than one month. The student contract sets out the contractual commitments of both the student and the private school. Once signed, both parties will be contractually bound to the agreed terms and conditions stated in the document.

For example, if the refund policy in your student contract states that there will be no refund of course fees once the courses have started, you will not be entitled to any refund even if you have not attended any lessons.

The student contract also contains other key mutual obligations of the private school and the student on matters such as course details and payment terms. It is hence critical that you read and understand the terms and conditions carefully before signing and committing yourself to the contract. Do not sign the student contract if you do not agree with the terms or if the terms are different from what the agent or the school has told you. Clarify with the school.

Retain a copy of the signed student contract as well as all receipts issued by school as these may serve as documentary proof in the event of a dispute.

If necessary, you can request the school for clarification or the translation of contract in your native language (i.e. in Chinese or in India or in Myanmar or Vietnam). School will arrange staff to explain using your native language. Students can also view and access Advisory

Note at CPE website: Skills Future SG. The school will also give an original copy of the contract to the student as it can be presented as a legal document in the event of disagreement.

The student's guardian will also sign the contract if the student is below the age of 18. The authorized signatory will sign the contract on behalf of the School.

6.23 Course withdrawal policy

Withdrawal means the student contract is terminated and the student is no longer a student of Stanford Academy (SA). The Course Withdrawal Policy covers a student's request for a course withdrawal from Stanford Academy, either with Withdrawal due to non-delivery of course or Withdrawal due to other reasons.

Terms and Conditions for Withdrawal

A Student who withdraws from SA to enroll with another Private Education Institution shall be deemed to have withdrawn from SA must do so by completing the Withdrawal Form, obtainable from the administrative staff.

9	About the course and its strategy towards teaching and learning and towards blended learning/e-learning. The MBA forms part of an integrated, cross-university MBA programme which is designed to give students from diverse disciplines and backgrounds the opportunity to develop their potential as managers and leaders, to study postgraduate management collaboratively and to specialise in innovation and leadership management and development. The preparation of influential leaders and managers involves developing the self-awareness and the innovative capabilities necessary for creating successful and sustainable groups and organisations. The MBA provides students with the opportunity to study innovation management and collaboratively develop their own effectiveness as managers and leaders whilst following an MBA programme of study which includes the essential business functions of accounting and finance, leadership and strategic management, people management and marketing, and culminates in an individually designed business research project. The MBA programme is underpinned by the understandings of responsible management, ethical and respectful behaviour and evidence-informed practice. Embedded within the programme are the principles of self and lifelong development, ethics, responsibility, inclusion, diversity and sustainability and the curriculum will be structured to involve the development of creativity, citizenship and awareness of service. This is an active response to the call for programmes to be adaptable and to prepare students for the future as flexible individuals, capable of coping with changing lives and employment opportunities.

All students will also study a 20 credit module (Management Learning and Research) which is designed to familiarise them with business research methods and to prepare them to undertake the final part of the course, a Business Research Project. Students will receive supervision from GSBL and will need to comply with the School's ethics procedures

In addition to the credit-bearing programme, there will also be an enrichment programme which will include breakfast meetings, an extended induction, workshops, visits, guest speakers and masterclasses. Students will also be encouraged to become involved in social activities and charity fundraising.

Students' learning is initiated and directed through formal contact time with the teaching team in lectures and seminars. There is an emphasis on active learning, as the MBA and MBA pathway students develop learning through group activities organised in class and outside formal teaching time. As mature individuals developing a career path in management, they are expected to develop their competencies through required reading, writing, problem solving and other tasks outside of the class in order to prepare for face to face sessions, a 'flipped classroom' approach.

Students will develop their understanding and show their ability to apply knowledge and analyses to various business contexts through a range of opportunities, including the use of their own work experience, case studies, business scenarios, presentations and problem-based learning exercises. A positive, critical and responsible approach is encouraged throughout the course, enabling deep understanding and the adoption of creative and innovative responses, so reflecting the nature of the business and management environment.

The lectures and seminars which constitute the formal face-to-face elements of the course are essential activities that will support the development of knowledge and understanding. These sessions will provide students with tools of analysis, outline methods for evaluation and give clear guidance on how students may best extend and apply their learning independently. The face to face sessions are action oriented and student-centred to encourage 'deep' as opposed to 'surface' learning, and give students the opportunity to apply their understanding to various business scenarios, and to test out their ideas.

Module teaching on the MBA is structured to be developmental, so that students will first develop basic knowledge of a topic, and then apply this knowledge to a variety of problems and scenarios presented in seminars and outside formal classes. Embedded within the subject teaching will be opportunities for personal professional development appropriate to business and management practitioners, for example; to develop expertise in giving presentations.

It is expected that students will prepare in advance for both lectures and seminars using digital platforms where appropriate (a 'flipped classroom' model) either independently or as a group, in order that maximum active use may be made of face-to-face and peer-to-peer opportunities for learning. In addition, the reflective practitioner model will

	encourage students to maintain an active and reflective stance to their learning and how it connects to the world of work. The course makes use of the Open University Digital and Information Literacies Framework to encourage the development of digital literacy throughout the course The development of the personal awareness and practical skills associated with management and leadership will be encouraged in a supportive manner throughout the programme. Group work, presentations, writing for diverse audiences and undertaking research will all contribute to the students' practical skills. It is anticipated that personal awareness of areas for development will develop progressively through the course, and students will be strongly encouraged in a supportive manner to develop these areas. The Core materials, e.g. handbooks, presentations, reading materials etc will be made available on VLE and the platform will also provide the vehicle for online collaboration and other blended learning activities. Students will be encouraged to get to know the members of their cohort, and actively participate in events which contribute to the course and to student learning and development, but which lie outside formal contact hours. There will be an extended induction which will include the principles of individual and team learning and development, action planning and preparation for academic study at master's level. Additional events that will contribute to the course may include masterclasses, workshops, guest lectures, networking events, social occasions and visits. Students will be encouraged to take leadership roles in these events, so contributing to their own development. All students will have access to careers' advice, and will meet regularly with a personal academic tutor who will monitor and guide their progress.
